

DEAR FRIENDS,

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a very happy holiday season and a very Merry Christmas. Please enjoy the time you get to spend with your friends and family and all this season has to offer. We have already seen some flakes, so perhaps we will have a white Christmas this year.

Santa and his elves will be here on Thursday, December 8th for photos and to visit. Have your photo with Santa (compliments of R.D. Scinto), and drop off some toys for the Toys 4 Kids collection.

Our holiday vendor fair will take place the second full week of the month. Look over the rest of the newsletter for more information.
